Notes for Lois E Neufeld:
LOIS E. NEUFELD

Lois Neufeld of Overland Park, Kan., died Oct. 31, 1999, in the crash of Egypt Air 990 while on a tour to visit Egypt and Israel. She was born near Hanston, Kan., Feb. 4, 1930, and graduated from Hanston High School, then Bethel College and its School of Nursing. She became a nurse practitioner and earned an M.S.N. degree from the University of Kansas. She spent her professional career working in emergency departments, first at the KU Medical Center then at the Kansas City Veterans Hospital, from which she retired in 1995.

She was a member of Hanston Mennonite Church all her life. She will be remembered for her curious mind and love of music. She emphasized fitness and exercise and had a zest for travel, which took her to six of the seven continents and ultimately led to her untimely death. She will be remembered most of all for her care and compassion for others, not only in her career as a nurse but also for family and friends, for whom she was unfailingly there when needed. She leaves a huge, aching hole in the lives of her relatives and many friends.

A memorial service at Hanston Mennonite Church will be delayed until late January to allow absent family members to return from Cambodia.
